Jeremiah Worthington Mahoney was born at Coalville, Utah on May 26, 1864, a son of Worthington and Louisa Philpott Mahoney. As a small boy he lived in Heber. Later the family moved to a ranch on the Provo River above Halls stone. At the age of 14 years he went to work for William Moulton helping on the ranch. In 1884 he married Sarah Giles. From this union four children were born, three of whom are still living. His wife died in 1901. During this period he worked in the old Ontario Drain Tunnel from the Judge Mine in Park City. On January 20, 1904 he married Lottie Malinda Hicken in the Salt Lake Temple. From 1910-1912 he filled a mission for the LDS Church to the Northwestern States. After returning and cattle business and has continued in this line since. He is very active for his 89 years, still rides the bullrake at haying time. He served a term as city councilman and has always been interested in the welfare of our community.

Lottie Malinda Mahoney was born at Heber on September 20, 1879, a daughter of Addison and Elizabeth Moulton Hicken. As a young girl she learned dressmaking and practiced it for some time. She has been active in most auxiliaries in the Church. She served as secretary-treasurer of the Heber Third Ward Relief Society. She is now a member of the Fourth Ward Relief Society Quilting Committee.
